

I do not want the ownership limit to be raised for any one person or corporation. As a matter of fact, I think it is too high already, and in some cases amounts to a near de facto monopoly in some markets (and should be lowered). I do not want my freedom of choice further eroded.